Donna Nuss, Denis Hardy, Vanessa Ingraham

Efficiently operate by

- promoting the use of WebEx for web based meetings resulting in less travel
- filing taxes electronically

Acknowledge our part

- Scalehouses have started to use thermal receipt tape instead of multi-copy tickets
- Switched to the electronic version of the Environmental Messenger
- Security officer's surveys and reports have been switched to electronic options

Reduce our impacts by

- implementing electronic invoicing and pay stubs
- changing printer settings corporate wide to double sided and black and white printing
- collecting toner cartridges for recycling
- rolling out the automatic deposits of expense reimbursements

Take time to plan

- Exploring options for electronic signatures at the scale houses
- Provide recycled paper for printers

Higher Environmental Performance by

- encouraging vendors to switch to electronic payments
- encouraging contractors to switch their printer settings to double sided and black and white printing

1st Innovation and leadership

- Trialing with operations the use of tablets in place of paper documents (i.e. daily/monthly/quarterly inspections)

QUESTIONS / DISCUSSIONS

1. How do you use technology to reduce your impacts at work/home?
2. How could/have you reduced paper usage onsite?
3. How could you spread the EARTH 1st message through your relationship networks?
4. What opportunities are there to use web based/teleconference meetings in your operations?
5. What ideas do you have to apply technology to reduce our environmental impacts?
